Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, chronic lung diseases, known collectively as chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, are the fourth leading cause of death in the United States; and

WHEREAS, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease is the only chronic illness with a rising death rate; and

WHEREAS, early detection and diagnosis, effective treatment, and patient education are key to stopping this rising death rate and reducing the incidence of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim November 2004 as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together to raise awareness of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.
